- Consider taking courses that fulfill the 3 hours of International and Cultural Diversity requirement and the 3 hours of Cultural Discourse requirement when completing the Social and Behavioral Sciences, free electives and Creative Arts requirements.
- The recommendations above represent what a typical TAMU student's schedule looks like during the first four semesters. If working to complete an Associate's Degree before transferring, please align your degree plan to satisfy TAMU degree requirements. You may not have to complete the coursework in the sequence above but this major requires or recommends specific coursework to be completed.

Coursework Timeline

- Competitive applicants may wish to have the required and recommended coursework completed by the application deadline.
- Applicants to the summer/fall term may be asked to submit spring final grades, this is not a guarantee.
- Summer coursework will not be considered for summer/fall applicants.
- Fall coursework will not be considered for spring applicants.
- Applicants to the spring term may wish to have the required and recommended coursework completed by the end of Summer II semester before applying.

Additional Transfer Requirements

- Transfer applicants should have completed a full semester (spring or fall) course load of 12 transferable hours (minimum) after graduating from high school.
- The Department of Communication and Journalism is looking for students who are interested in pursuing our degree and graduating with a degree in either Communication or in Telecommunication Media Studies or in Journalism. Students should indicate our department as the primary major they are interested in if they wish to be admitted. The essay and supporting materials should reflect that the student is interested in pursuing our Communication degree.
- The only acceptable COMM/SPCH courses from a community college are Introduction to Communication (1311,) Public Speaking (1315,) Group Communication (2333,) Argumentation & Debate (2335,) Oral Interpretation (2341.)
- Meeting minimum requirements does not guarantee admission. The entire record is reviewed for consistency in coursework and grades.
- Maximum credit hours listed are hours completed at the time of application. All courses completed, regardless of degree applicability, are considered including transcribed credit by exam hours.
- Applicants cannot select which hours are transferable, or opt to exclude completed hours, and all hours will be factored when calculating maximum transferable hours.

Additional Information

- Applicants should be serious about earning a degree in Communication or Telecommunication Media Studies
- Transfer applicants are instructed NOT to accept transfer admission to any major with the expectation of later applying for an on-campus change of major.

Career & Educational Opportunities

The BA in COMM requires study in communication skills, speaking, communication theory, rhetoric, and research methods. Student then branch out to include choices among dozens of communication courses. The BA is a flexible, liberal arts oriented degree. Our students may become strategic communication experts in public relations, marketing, sales, promotions, advertising, leaders and managers, spokespeople, politicians, writers, artists, teachers, and informed citizens. They work in in business, government, non-profit organizations, and higher education. Some BA-COMM majors may choose to go on to law school or graduate school. BA-COMM students will select a minor. They also have the option to select a certificate in Health Communication, Leadership & Conflict Management, Social Media, or Strategic Communication.

Transfer Course Sheet Notes
